

National and Class AA Leagues to Absorb Federal Is One Peace Plan

the final word in Comfort—a new note in Elegance.

This National Dollar Shirt

is a soft shirt—made with a single cuff instead of the usual double French one—a cuff therefore that can be worn soft or starched, as you prefer.

Exclusive in patterns, sturdy in fabrics, this shirt is just one example of the Dollar-fifty values our National Buying Power gets and gives you for One Dollar.

See all our shirts. Every one is only a Dollar. Every one is backed by our Guarantee—

"Buy, wear, launder, a National DOLLAR SHIRT—if not satisfactory, return it and get your money."

Made in America
National Dollar Shirt Shops
"from Coast to Coast"
936 F Street - N.W.

SEE "OMO" AND DRESS BETTER

FALL SUITS, OVERCOATS, BALMACAANS, TAILORED TO ORDER, $20

A business man buying a bond considers its earning power. If its earning power is high at a given price, he invests—but a low price alone offers no temptation.

It's "good business" in buying a suit or overcoat to do likewise—consider its earning power—the service it will render, as indicated by the quality of the materials and workmanship.

The earning power of Omohundro Suits and Overcoats never falls short of their cost—often exceeds it.

Tis on this basis that I solicit your consideration.

Your garment will be made here on the premises by my expert designers and custom tailors.

Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

OMOHUNDRO, Near Cor. 818 F St. 9th & F Sts. Washington's Favorite Tailor

RACING

HAVRE DE GRACE
Six Races Daily—including a Stake Race and a Steeplechase.
Special Trains: B. & O. R.R. leave 12:00 noon; Penn. R.R. leave 12:10 P.M.
Admission, Grandstand and Paddock, $1.50. Ladies, $1.00.
First Race, 2:30 p.m.

Get Your Share of Birds and Rabbits
You'll get more than your share if you use our ammunition.
FIRST SHOT, $2.50.
Manhattan Hammer Double-barrel Shotgun, 12-16 gauge, guaranteed to shoot 100 yds. $11.50.
A. H. Fox Double-barrel Hammerless Shotgun, 12 gauge, guaranteed to shoot 100 yds. $37.50.
Parker Shotgun, 12, 16, 20 gauge. A big value. $27.50.

Complete Line of Shells
Agent for U. S. Black Shells.
HUNTING CARTRIDGES, $3.00 to $5.00.
PANTS, $2.00 up.
LEGGINGS, 50c to $1.50.

Howard A. French & Co., 424 9th St. N.W.

Always the Same—THARP'S

Berkeley Rye
812 F St. N.W. Phone Main 277.
Special Private Delivery.

TIGERS DON'T FEAR FEDS.

Cobb, Crawford and Other Regulars Under Contract, Says Jennings.

DETROIT, November 13.—Ty Cobb, Sam Crawford and the rest of the regular team will be in the field with Detroit again next year, according to Hugh Jennings. "The Federals have made out men no offers and the players are all under contract," said Jennings. "President Frank Navin seems in perfect harmony with his men and no kick at all was registered at the close of the season."

"Yes, the Federal League wanted me two years ago, and I then came out with a statement that I thought the time was not ripe for a third league, and still think the same," added the Detroit leader. "As to myself, I am not under any ironbound contract with Detroit, verbal agreements being reached between Mr. Navin and myself each year. When Detroit wants to dispose of my services I am going and not being cast off for two years and then being recruited, principal among them being Pep Young, who was with the New York Yankees, and who was drafted from the Tri-State League and then went with Sacramento. He developed into one of the fastest infielders in the Coast League."

Maxwell--Jeffery
H. B. LEARY, JR., Agent, 1321-23 14th St. N.W. Tel. N. 4424.

8 CADILLAC BAKER ELEC.
The Cook & Stoddard Co. 1138-40 Conn. Ave. Phone N. 7810.

NATIONAL FIELD TRIALS.
Ed, Owned by Gen. Roger Williams, Captures All-Age Cup.

LAGRANGE, Ky., November 13.—Excellent sport was enjoyed yesterday at the field trials of the National Fox Hunters' Association. Shortly after the pack of thirteen chosen dogs were cast off four foxes were sighted, and the lively chase that resulted lasted more than two hours. The hundred or more riders made up the largest field of the meeting, and while several were thrown, there were no serious accidents.

The final awards were made as follows: All-age cup, Ed, owned by Gen. Roger Williams, of Lexington, Ky.; hunting and trailing, Lady S., owned by Turley Hardy of Arkansas; speed and turning, Hardy, Joe, owned by Joseph Smith of Lexington, Ky.; endurance, Mugsy, owned by Harris & Caspar.

TOUR OF WEST IS ENRICHING TEAMS

All-American and All-National Combination Are Drawing Enormous Crowds.

SHARE OF PLAYERS WAS $700 EACH NOVEMBER 6

Miller Huggins Makes Deal for Pinch Hitter Hyatt of Pirates.

Base Ball Gossip.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

That base ball is far from being dead is shown by the brilliant success of the All-Nationals and All-Americans are achieving on the present tour of the west.

Frank Bancroft, the business manager of the Cincinnati club, in a letter to William Shattell of the Phillies, says that to November 6 each player had been handed a little more than $700 in dividends, with the best dates of the trip—that is, the most profitable—yet to be played.

Before the players started on this trip Bancroft impressed upon them that there was but one way to make the tour a financial success, and that was for the players to work just as hard in every game as if a pennant depended on the outcome. This the players have done, and as a result they have drawn great crowds. They also have been favored by splendid weather.

The touring teams will start for Honolulu November 24 and will take their six days to get from San Francisco to Honolulu. They will play six games in two weeks and then return to San Francisco for a number of games before starting for the east. The trip appears to be one of the most successful in the history of the game and proves that interest in the sport is decidedly alive.

Hyatt, the pinch hitter who for several years has been a terror to teams because of his ability to get hits when they are most needed, is to be a member of Miller Huggins' team next season. The St. Louis manager has made a trade for Hyatt, and he will use him exclusively for pinch hitting. Hyatt is not capable enough to play any position regularly. Clarke tried him in the outfield and at first base for Pittsburgh. He failed in both instances, but has always shown a pinch hitter.

Because the Giants need a third baseman, McGraw is given credit for finding exactly nine candidates for the job, if rumors are to be believed. Here is a list of names which have been mentioned in connection with the job: Heinie Zimmerman, Hans Lobert, Eddie Grant, Milton Stock, George Burdette, Arthur Shaffer, Robert Reed, Desmond Beatty and Arthur Kores.

Ray Morgan may find it no easy matter to hold the second-base position next season, for Douglas Neff, who is to be tried in that position, is to be really never had a chance with the Griffins because of illness, ought to go through a grueling training period. As a college player Neff did not play in that class because he was a natural hitter. There was not a single year that Neff played in the majors, but he did not lead the team in hitting, which is a splendid record and undoubtedly means that he will bring back the best of the most essential qualification, that of being a natural hitter.

Neff is fast and a superb fielder, and he may prove the surprise of the Nationals' training camp next spring. A number of former major league players are going to "come back," says an exchange. The list of players drafted by the major league clubs shows that several players are going to get another chance in the majors. For instance, among the men drafted by the New York Giants are pitcher Ralph Stroud of Sacramento, who was drafted from the Detroit team in 1911 and 1912; Catchers Jack Adams of New Orleans, who was once with Cleveland, and Pitcher Alvin Gipe of Seattle, who was given a try-out by Manager Mack at San Antonio in 1912. One of the seven pitchers drafted by Brooklyn in 1913 is Fred McLeod, who was with the Chicago Cubs and was sent to Louisville. Under Jack Heyman's management, Toney was in the last season and now he will get a berth with the Dodgers.

Judging from reports which are going the rounds, all the players who jumped to the Federals are to be taken care of. That is to say, they are to return to the organization and have their contracts with the outlaws observed.

The latest is that Fielder Jones, who was signed to a high-salaried contract to manage the St. Louis Federals, will be sent to the organization and have his contract with the Yankees, Joe Tinker is to take Hank O'Day's place at the head of the Cubs. It is also said that the Federals would probably be left in charge of that team, which would most likely be shifted into the International League. Once peace is declared it will make little difference whether the players who remained loyal during the war were to return to the jumpers or not.

Frank Farrell, owner of the New York club of the American League, who, according to rumor, was to be ousted from the American League, insists that he has no intention of getting out of the game. He claims to have made money with his club and that he will not leave it. Farrell evidently proposes to better his team by grabbing such players as he can get and by making a few more jumps. He is said to have negotiations under way by which he will get Eddie Plank and perhaps Bender, to join peace and that the jumpers would return to the field Farrell expects to get some good ball players for his team.

Jess Willard, the fairly well known cowboy, intends to stand pat on what he has accomplished thus far. He will not monkey with the quizz saw will pugilism, known in private life as Sam Langford. Willard yearns to be beaten by Jack Johnson.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

NATIONAL LEAGUE AND CLASS AA BODIES TO ABSORB FEDS

International to Be Known as Federal, While Association Also Will Be Known as a Second Major League.

One of the best explanations of what may happen in the event of peace in base ball is printed in a dispatch from Chicago to the Evening Sun, New York, which follows:

"The far and make-up of the new league is concerned, it seems to be settled, but the question of jumping players is still in the air. The Federals will be absorbed by the National and class AA leagues. From present indications none of the Federals will come into the American League, although it was thought a few weeks ago that the New York Americans would be sold to the Wards of Brooklyn."

"Even James A. Gilmore, who has declared emphatically that the Federals are not looking for peace, has joined those who declare that a peaceful settlement is near. The leader of the Federals last night outlined the plans for ending the struggle. Gilmore declared that if the plan under consideration goes through control of the Chicago National team will be acquired by Charles H. Weeghman and his business associates, and that the club will play on the Federal League grounds on the North Side, which will be enlarged and improved for its new use. He also said that the new club would be made up of the best players in the present National League team and the Federal League club."

"Another statement made by President Gilmore was that no city would have more than two clubs next season. He also said that the Federals would be absorbed by the National League with perhaps a new name; that there would be no international league teams in the new organization, but that Garry Herrmann did not act as a private individual in his recent conferences with President Weeghman at which time the plan was discussed; that the American Association and the International League will receive a higher classification under the new plan."

"Under the new order of things the present International League is to be known as the Federal League. The Montreal club will be transferred to Pittsburgh and merged with the Pittsburgh Federals. Jersey City will merge with the Brooklyn Federals and play at Washington Park. The two clubs in Buffalo and Baltimore will combine, so the new circuit will comprise Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Baltimore, Toronto, Rochester, Newark and Providence in the American Association there will be mergers at Kansas City and Indianapolis. The league will then be divided into second-class major leagues, being freed from the draft. In the fall the winners will meet in a series for secondary honors."

"Another conference is to be held today, at which time the details of the agreement are to be settled and something unforeseen hinders the negotiations."

PERTINENT COMMENT

By J. ED GRILLO.

With so gigantic a proposition to solve as the present war in base ball, it is not to be supposed that peace can be brought about without weeks of negotiations and conferences. The failure to come to any definite conclusion in Chicago yesterday is not a disappointment. Chairman Herrmann is confident that in due time peace will be established, and it is significant that he admits the Wards, owners of the Brooklyn Fed team, are to be taken care of with a franchise in organized base ball.

Once the Federals are deprived of their principal principle backers, Weeghman and Ward, there will not be much fight left in the new organization. But there is no doubt that the other club owners also will be taken care of in a way. Some of these may find their way into the International League or American Association.

For the time being there is a working agreement between the belligerents, it is understood, which prevents either side from continuing to offer fabulous salaries to the ball players, which, after all, is the condition which has forced both sides to try for peace.

It is very evident that the American League does not propose to take any of the Federals into its ranks. The action of the National to make room for Weeghman and the Wards, but the Federals are not to be taken into the organization. The Federals are to stand firm, though it will not oppose anything that the old league may do to bring about peace. The American League will derive just as much benefit from peace as the National, though the old league, by re-birthing two or three capitalistic into its fold, will have an advantage.

The latest is that Fielder Jones, who was signed to a high-salaried contract to manage the St. Louis Federals, will be sent to the organization and have his contract with the Yankees, Joe Tinker is to take Hank O'Day's place at the head of the Cubs. It is also said that the Federals would probably be left in charge of that team, which would most likely be shifted into the International League. Once peace is declared it will make little difference whether the players who remained loyal during the war were to return to the jumpers or not.

Frank Farrell, owner of the New York club of the American League, who, according to rumor, was to be ousted from the American League, insists that he has no intention of getting out of the game. He claims to have made money with his club and that he will not leave it. Farrell evidently proposes to better his team by grabbing such players as he can get and by making a few more jumps. He is said to have negotiations under way by which he will get Eddie Plank and perhaps Bender, to join peace and that the jumpers would return to the field Farrell expects to get some good ball players for his team.

Jess Willard, the fairly well known cowboy, intends to stand pat on what he has accomplished thus far. He will not monkey with the quizz saw will pugilism, known in private life as Sam Langford. Willard yearns to be beaten by Jack Johnson.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

Willard contends that his past record settles him to a meeting with Johnson, but the fact of the matter is that Willard's ring record entitles him to go back cowboying. This is Willard's fourth year as a fighter, and he has mixed in two hundred fights. He won eighteen via the knockout route. That certainly sounds imposing. But analyzing the record throws a different light on the situation. Among Willard's eighteen victims are fourteen "unknowns." The four who are known are Dan Delo, Soldier Kearns, One Round Davis and George Rodol, known One of them a pugilistic joke, Willard's victory over Kearns was a "knockout" counts very little for him, because a man of his size and bulk—6 feet 6 inches and 200 pounds—ought to be able to knock out fourteen novices in a week.

WONDER WHAT MERTZ WILL SAY TODAY?

At the Sign of the Moon. STORE CLOSING DAILY AT 6 P.M. Saturdays at 9 P.M. A Dollar Saved Is a Dollar Earned

Let us demonstrate to you the economy of Mertz Tailoring. We are turning out the kind of Suits and Overcoats well dressed men want in fabrics of the highest grade and smartest weaves at popular prices.

Suit or Overcoat

TO ORDER $11.50 $14.50

$20.00 Value $22.50 Value

Full Dress Suits to Order, $22.50 Special Department for Youths

Silk lined and faced. Elsewhere $22.50. Why hire a suit when you can get a value like this? We'll make to order smart suits for youths, saving ends of hats and outtings of $10. Fine quality.

All work is done by our own tailoring experts, and is fully guaranteed.

If You Live Out of Town Send for Booklet and Samples.

Mertz & Mertz Co., Inc., 906 F St.

Dancing Pumps, 5.00 For Men.

Arthur Burt Co., 1343 F.

Mark Cross Gloves, $1.50 Up!

The Mode Says—

THE man who wants the decidedly fashionable in Suits and Overcoats prefers the Mode's English effects. But we cater just as completely to the man who wants the less pronounced.

This gives us an enormous stock—but one of careful preparation. To the point of making it most complete we import two lines of English Coats—from Skipworth and Aquascutum—both of London.

Suits$18 to $45 Overcoats.....$15 to $50

This new grade of $18—both in Suits and Overcoats—is a wonderful value.

Eleventh & Streets—

New Shapes in Mode Hats, $3

WILL WALK 102 MILES FOR GAME

NOTRE DAME, Ind., November 13.—Five upperclassmen of the University of Notre Dame are engaged in an arduous demonstration of their loyalty to the foot ball eleven. The five students went to New Haven to see Yale and Notre Dame, and bet all their money against the Blue team.

Leading, their finances were so depleted that they had nothing left to make a trip to Chicago for the Carline game, so they had planned. At last the idea of walking struck them, and after much persuasion they induced the college authorities to let them go. The journey is 102 miles, and as the students started early Wednesday morning they will have only a shade more than three days for the trip.

The hikers carried no money with them and will depend upon the charity of farmers along the route. A letter from Harper, coach of the Notre Dame eleven, in the dependence of the walkers for admission to the game.

SOUTHERN WINS GAME.

Defeats Union Station in Basket Ball by 43 to 6.

The Southern team was the victor in the Terminal Y. M. C. A. Basket Ball League last night over Union Station by 43 to 6. The contest was a walk-away for the winners, as the more indicated. The line-up and summary:

Dolac Station. Position. Southern. Flynn,.....Right forward.....Smith. Dolac,.....Left forward.....Malone. O'Brien,.....Center.....Patt. Patterson,.....Right guard.....Hilly. Pacey,.....Left guard.....Hilly.

Goals—Smith (7), Malone (6), Flynn (2), Dolac (2). Fouls—Dolac (2), Flynn (2), Smith (2), Patterson (2), Pacey (2). Free Throws—Dolac (2), Flynn (2), Smith (2), Patterson (2), Pacey (2). Total Points—Southern, 43; Union Station, 6.

Tommy Keenan, Eastern Association umpire, is making good with amateur boxing tournaments in Kensington.

Tommy Keenan, Eastern Association umpire, is making good with amateur boxing tournaments in Kensington.

Consider this—